

Alberni Pair Go South

PORT ALBERNI — Two popular members of the district's younger set, Eileen Anne Doran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Willet, Vancouver and John Alexander Walker, youngest son of Mrs. Walker and the late Mr. Dave Walker, Port Alberni exchanged marriage vows at First United Church, on Saturday, November 6 at 7:30 p.m. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. E. Church.

The bride was given in marriage by her stepfather, Mr. William Willet.

The bride in traditional white was lovely in her wedding gown of slipper satin with lace overskirt. The neckline featured a net yoke with outline of lace ruffling. The lace appliqued illusion veil fell from a satin and lace headdress. She wore her mother's pearls and pearl and diamond ear rings, and carried talisman roses and gardenias.

The bridesmaids were Miss Lorna Skidmore, Nanaimo, cousin of the bride and Miss Fern Johnson of Port Alberni. They wore identical dresses of deep blue moire taffeta styled on same lines as the bride's. Each wore a shoulder length veil, held by blue flowers and carried dainty muffs mounted with sprays of roses and mums.

Arlene Olsen, the bride's niece, was an attractive flower girl, gowned in a taffeta dress of canary yellow with white embroidery. She wore a spray of white flowers in her hair and carried a basket of bronze mums. Master Robert Olsen, nephew of the bride attended as ring bearer.

The groom had as his bestman Mr. Lyle Cody of Port Alberni while Mr. Jim Russell of Nanaimo and Mr. Robert Olsen of Port Alberni were the ushers.

The reception was held in the Elks Home.

Mr. Cliff Lee was master of ceremonies and Mr. Bert Bayley and Mr. Harry Gray were toast masters. The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. W. R. Bookout.

For the motor trip to San Francisco and Los Angeles the bride donned a suit of apple green and her top coat was wine colored with Persian lamb trim, her accessories of black. A corsage of gardenias completed the smart ensemble. Upon their return from their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Walker will reside at Sproat Lake.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. Willet of Vancouver, Mr. and Mrs. W. Doran, Vancouver, the bride's brother

Popular Young Couple Wed At Beautiful Church Service

Two popular members of the district's younger set, Eileen Anne Doran, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Willet, Vancouver, and John Alexander Walker, youngest son of Mrs. Walker and the late Mr. Dave Walker, Port Alberni exchanged marriage vows at First United Church, on Saturday, Nov. 6, at 7.30 p.m. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. E. Church in the presence of more than 100 guests.

The church was beautifully decorated with baskets of chrysanthemums in autumn colors with the guest pews marked with miniature colonial bouquets.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her stepfather, Mr. Wm. Willet, entered the church to the strains of the wedding music, played by Mrs. N. L. Ball. During the signing of the register Miss Cathy Jackson sang "Through The Years."

Miss Doran, in traditional white looked lovely in her wedding gown of slipper satin with lace over skirt. The neckline featuring a net yoke with outline of lace ruffling. Cap sleeves were complimented by lily point satin mittens. The lace appliqued illusion veil fell from a satin and lace headdress. She wore her mother's pearls and pearl and diamond ear rings. The bridal bouquet was of talisman roses and gardenias.

The bridesmaids were Miss Lorna Skidmore, Nanaimo, cousin of the bride, and Miss Fern Johnson of Port Alberni. They wore identical dresses of deep blue moire taffeta styled on same lines as the bride's, with cap sleeves and ruffled "bow" neckline. Each wore shoulder length veils held with blue flowers and carried dainty muffs mounted with sprays of deep roses and mums from which fell pink streamers.

Arlene Olsen, the bride's niece, was an attractive flower girl gowned in a taffeta dress of canary yellow with white embroidery. She wore a spray of white flowers in her hair and carried a basket of bronze mums. Master Robert Olsen, nephew of the bride attended as ring bearer.

The groom had as his best man, Mr. Lyle Cody, of Port Alberni, while Mr. Jim Russell of Nanaimo and Mr. Robert Olsen of Port Alberni were the ushers.

The reception was held in the Elk's Home. The table centred with a three-tiered wedding cake flanked with fall tapers and vases of fall flowers.

The bridal couple were assisted in receiving the guests by their mothers. Mrs. Willet, gowned in grey crepe with a bustle effect and wearing accessories of rose and a corsage of roses and mums. Mrs. Walker chose a dress of plum colored crepe accented by accessories in grey. Her corsage was of gardenias.

Mr. Cliff Lee acted as master of ceremonies and Mr. Bert Bayley and Mr. Harry Gray were toast masters. The toast to the

Takes Vows

Mrs. JACK WALKER
the former Eileen Doran, whose marriage was an event of the week-end at First United Church. The popular young couple will make their home at Sproat Lake.

Mr. & Mrs. Walker to Spend Honeymoon in California

Gleaming candlelight and baskets of golden chrysanthemums were the background for one of the prettiest of all weddings which took place in First United Church on Saturday evening, November 6. The principals were Eileen Anne Doran, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Willet, of Vancouver, and John Alexander Walker, youngest son of Mrs. D. Walker and the late Mr. Walker, of Port Alberni. Rev. F. E. Church officiated at the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, the bride was exquisite in a gown of white slipper satin with full lace overskirt. The low sweetheart neckline was yoked with fine silk net and edged with a tiny shirred net ruffle. The short cap sleeves were complimented with long satin lily pointed gloves fastened with tiny buttons. Her brunette beauty was accentuated by the full length silk net veil with its delicate lace applique, which fell in fulness from a satin and net headdress. She carried a shower bouquet of deep red roses and gardenias.

Miss Lorna Skidmore, the bride's cousin, from Nanaimo, acted as maid of honor, while Miss Fern Johnson was bridesmaid. The attendants wore identical gowns of rich blue moire taffeta, fashioned with fitted bodice, full gathered skirt, and showing the off-the-shoulder neckline outlined with deep ruffles. Their chapel length pale pink veils were held in place with a garland of blue flowers, and they carried tiny flower-sprayed muffs.

Little Arlene and Bobby Olson, the bride's niece and nephew, were flower girl and ring bearer. The former wore a gown of buttermilk yellow taffeta trimmed with tiny white daisies and she wore a crown of daisies in her hair, and carried a basket of golden and bronze 'mums.

The groom was attended by Lyle Cody, of Alberni, as best man, while ushers for the occasion were Bob Olson and Jim Russell, of Nanaimo.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Nelson Ball, and during the signing of the register Miss Kathy Jackson sang the lovely "Through the Years."

A reception was held in the Elks' Hall, where over one hundred and fifty guests were invited. The bride and groom greeted their friends before an archway of flowers and banked with tall pots of bronze and yellow 'mums. Assisting in receiving the guests with the bridal group was the bride's mother and the groom's mother. Mrs. Willet was charming in a gown of grey crepe with bustle back. She wore a navy blue hat and accessories, and her flowers were roses and 'mums. Mrs. Walker was smartly gowned in plum crepe with grey veil trimmed chapeau and she wore a corsage of gardenias.

The banquet tables were beautifully decorated with fall flowers, while the bride's table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake. The toast to the bride was proposed by W. R. Bookhout, while toasts to the bridal attendants, the bride's mother and the groom's mother were given by Harry Gray, Mr. Skidmore and the best man. The master of ceremonies for the evening was Bert Bailey. Several telegrams from New York, Kamloops and Vancouver were received and read. After the reception the evening was spent in dancing to the music of Heck Mearn's orchestra.

For their honeymoon trip which will be spent motoring to California, the bride wore an apple-green suit, over which she topped a wine-colored coat, trimmed with Persian lamb. Her accessories were black, and she wore a corsage of gardenias. Upon the return of the newly-weds they will reside at Sproat Lake.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Willet, of Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. W. Doran, the bride's brother and sister-in-law, of Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. Walker, the groom's aunt and uncle, of Victoria; Miss Norma Hocking, Victoria; Mr. and Mrs. H. Skidmore, Frank and Lorna Skidmore, aunt and uncle and cousins from Nanaimo; John Barton, Victoria; Miss Muriel Fisher, Vancouver; Bob Boyd, Jr., and Mrs. C. Thomson, of Vancouver.

Courtenay papers please copy.

MR. AND MRS. JACK WALKER

Above is pictured Mr. and Mrs. Jack Walker, whose marriage took place in Port Alberni on Saturday, November 6. Mrs. Walker is the former Eileen Doran. The young couple have just returned from a honeymoon spent in California. They are residing now at Sproat Lake. This picture is through the courtesy of Charnell Studios.